

This record is a result of my meeting with Kevin DeClue about assisting him on a benefit concert. The concert never happened but music surely did. I want to acknowledge Jeremy Indick, Jon Hussey, and Darro Sandler for their musicianship and commitment.

I want to thank Mike Robinson from Eastwood Guitars for his vision and kindness. Jimmy Millinchuk for his wonderful lutherie, and his friendship. Bill Carruth for loving my amps as much as I do. Kent Armstrong for his pickup wizardry and patience. Jeff Firestone at Retro Music in Keene NH. My other musicians Rich Williams, Adam Sawyer, Glendon Ingalls, Fred Haas, Michael Zsoldas, Mark Paquin and Doug James.

My musical influences are many but I must mention, Paul Simon, Carol King, Burt Bacharach, Doc Pomus, Leiber and Stoller, Willie Dixon, The Beatles, James Taylor, Jimmy Webb, Joni Mitchell, Tony Joe White, Hank Williams, Neil Diamond, Johnny "Guitar" Watson, and Dillon Campbell (who lit the initial fire for me to start writing again). Thankful to Robbie Farrow, who first saw me as a producer. My friend and mentor Kevin DeClue without whom there would be no music on this record.

But in reality it's everyone I ever saw playing music as a child especially Liberace who was my first musical god, Frank Sinatra, Sammy Davis Jr. , my mother Rose who sang with a heart and passion I've never been able to find anywhere. My dad Nick who said "do that music, that's where your talent is." My third grade teacher Ruth Levine who acknowledged my "heart". And my loving family Cathy, Diana, Owen, and Dale.

This was my music, now it's yours..
